

The background of the cover is a painting of a river scene. In the foreground, a group of about ten people are walking away from the viewer along a dirt path that crosses the river. They are carrying large packs on their backs, suggesting a caravan or a group of travelers. The river is wide and calm, reflecting the sky and the surrounding greenery. In the distance, across the river, there is a small island or peninsula with a few buildings and trees. The overall style is that of a classic landscape painting.
